

USAID
FROM THE AMERICAN PEOPLE

Developing digital books in indigenous languages in the Global South

Chair: Fernando Rubio, Juárez and Associates Inc.

Presentations:

- 1. Indigenous Language Overview. Paul Frank, SIL LEAD Inc.
- 2. America: The experience of Guatemala in the development and use of digital reading books. Sophia Maldonado, Lifelong Learning Project
- 3. Africa: Using Mother-Tongue Audiobooks for Language and Literacy Development in a Preschool in Rural Kenya. Angela Becker, SIL
- 4. Asia - India: StoryWeaver: Creating Reading Resources for Children in the Indigenous Languages of the Global South. Amna Singh, Pratham Books
- 5. Oceania: Seeding Stories with Bloom Reader in Papua New Guinea. Richard Jones, Save the Children Australia

Discussant: Brooke Estes, Global Book Alliance

Education

Value of indigenous languages

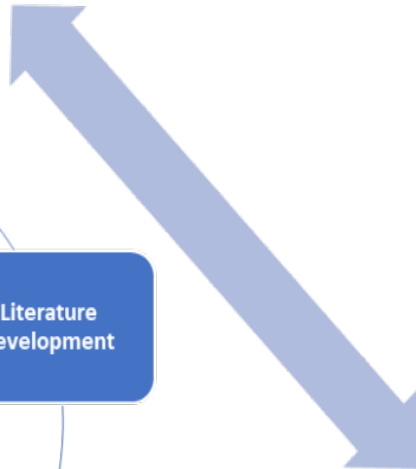

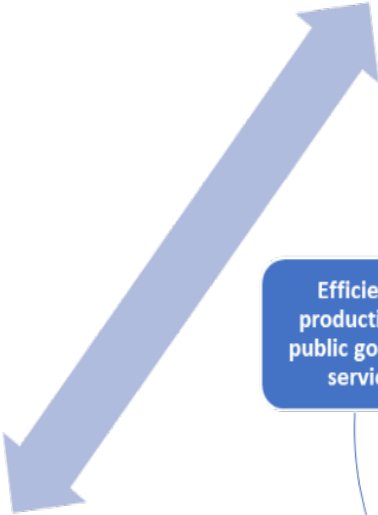

Efficiently production of public good and services

Literature development

World's culture heritage

Education and learning rights

Reading materials in native languages

Technology

Discussant: Brooke Estes, Global Book Alliance

Fernando Rubio	frubio@juarezassociates.com
Paul Frank	paul_frank@sil-lead.org
Sophia Maldonado	Sophia.Maldonado@usaidlea.org
Amna Singh	amna@prathambooks.org
Richard Jones	rjones@millerjones.ca
Angela Becker	angela_becker@sil.org
Brooke Estes	kestes@usaid.gov